Re: United States v. Donziger, No. 19-cr-561 (LAP) [11-cv-691]

Dear Judge Preska:

I write on behalf of the Government to request that: (1) the Court schedule a conference in this matter for Monday August 12, 2019 to address Mr. Donziger's release conditions; and (2) the Court direct Mr. Donziger to surrender today any passport or other travel documents in his possession, whether expired or not.

As of now, Mr. Donziger has only secured one co-signor—his wife. In addition, Mr. Donziger surrendered a single passport on August 7, 2019. The Court-ordered release conditions required surrender of any passport to Pretrial Services by August 7. After the Government made inquiry of Mr. Donziger today about whether he possessed any other passport, Mr. Donziger indicated he had two other passports but represented that they were expired. The Government notes that Pretrial Services informed us that Mr. Donziger is currently on electronic location-monitoring.

Respectfully submitted,

s/Rita M. Glavin
